THE NC STATE UNIVERSITY AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE

The Awards for Excellence (AFE) is the most prestigious honor bestowed upon non-faculty employees. This award recognizes the outstanding accomplishments and contributions of individual employees, above and beyond an employee's daily job responsibilities.

The College of Engineering is fortunate to have many outstanding employees who contribute daily to the success of our College. The NC State University Awards for Excellence recognizes the notable contributions that are above and beyond an employee's normal job responsibilities. These meritorious achievements should be so singularly outstanding that special recognition is justified. Candidates should demonstrate excellence in their departments or divisions, the NC State campus community, the State of North Carolina, or in the lives of others.

AWARD CATEGORIES
