VIRTUAL HOMECOMING CELEBRATION

Friday, Nov. 13, 2020 | 11:00 a.m. - Noon

Help the College of Engineering celebrate Red and White Week 2020 from the comfort of your own home.

While we won't be able to celebrate together on campus this fall, the College of Engineering still wants to gather (virtually) to provide an update on how we are adjusting during unpredictable times and playing a major role in keeping the people of North Carolina safe.

Households that register will receive a Zoom link to participate in the virtual program. The first 100 registrations will receive a box with specialty engineering items to help celebrate Red and White Week.

Register now at **go.ncsu.edu/homecoming**.
